Customer commitment

Our commitment to providing the highest levels of customer service is based on the following guiding principles.

- Work as partners with our customers rather than as suppliers
- Keep our commitments and obligations of responsibility, respect and trust
- Offer best advice at all times and strive to attain the highest standards
- Communicate clearly, responsibly and effectively; always responding quickly to any requests.
- Use our scale and long term supplier relationships to offer the leading brands at extremely competitive prices
- Hold substantial stocks for speed and consistency of supply
- Guarantee the quality of our products and fitting
- Follow a robust environmental policy, including the removal of all waste from site for recycling
- Adhere to stringent management systems and quality control procedures
- Deliver best local service through our unique regional network
- Recognise that sometimes things don't always go to plan, so work to resolve any unforeseen issues at the earliest stage
- Provide a prompt and efficient after sales service

Health, Safety and the Environment

Throughout our organisation, health & safety and the environment are of vital importance.
